What Is It? Research in the Neuroscience of Social Emotional Engagement fosters our ability to support children with autism while supporting UDL for all students. The Social Emotional Engagement – Knowledge and Skills (SEE-KS) program will be shared as a framework for fostering Social Emotional Engagement, presenting information in multiple ways, and promoting student participation. Participants will be able to take away strategies for measuring student engagement, designing instruction and teacher-to-teacher mentorship.

Financial Disclosure: Emily Rubin is being paid an honorarium and travel expenses for this presentation. she receives royalties as the co-author of the book “SCERTS Model, Vol. 1 & 2, a Social Emotional Assessment Framework. Non-Financial Disclosure: Emily Rubin serves as an advisory to ASHA’s ad hoc committee on ASD.

Please check the website www.myinfinitec.org before coming to trainings to make sure there have been no changes in location or for any weather concerns.
